What? No Coffee?! – 2010 FOUNDERS DAY PICNIC

The Founder's Day picnic for Colorado Springs Alcoholics Anonymous had an ample supply of fun, food and fellowship. This year at Antler's Park, approximately 120 attendees joined in the celebration of 75 years of Alcoholics Anonymous. There was plenty of "grub" to eat; including burgers, dawgs, chips, sweets, and soda. But wait....no coffee?! No one seemed to mind however, while enjoying the festivities.

It is said that the first Founder's Day picnic was first held in 1980, after the completion of the intergroup charter. The authors: Mel D., Bill C. and Diane B. declared that in addition to the picnic, there would be an "Old-timer's Dinner" and a "Gratitude Dance" held annually. This year the speaker was Dave S., and his story captivated the hearts of many.

One of the attendees, Patrick M., commented on the immense joy he felt as he watched the group join for the Serenity Prayer. He had taken a phone call just before the circle gathered. As he stood in the distance, he was struck by awe. Steve-O, a fellow Colorado Springs AA member added, "Tomas and Megan kick ass!" He was among the many to appreciate the work that went on behind the scenes.

We extend special thanks to: Tomas and Megan (programs chair and vice-chair); Troy E., Josh K. and Tomas (for loading and unloading the grills); Terry (for grilling the meat and supplying propane); and Tony F. (for grabbing supplies and hooking up the PA system). Thanks to anyone else who lent a hand, the service is appreciated. We'd like to thank everyone who "suited-up and showed-up"; your presence made it better. If you missed it this year.....don't miss it the next!

S.W.R.A.A.S.A. - South West Regional Alcoholics Anonymous Service Assembly

This assembly occurs every two years at different locations in the region, which means it's in Denver every 22 years. The purpose of this assembly is for those in the Southwest Region of Alcoholics Anonymous to learn and share about the General Service structure at the Group, District, Area, and Conference levels and to share information on the trusted service positions within that framework. This year it will be held at the Doubletree Hotel Denver, 3203 Quebec Street, Denver, CO, 80207. It will be held October 8 through October 10. The Contact Registration Chair is Samantha G. at 858-531-8036. The Chairperson is Gelong Tashi at 303-219-0692 or altdelegte@colorado.org. The Alternate Chairperson is Jennifer F. at 970-948-7160 or jpenco@sopris.net.

Step 7

Humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.

Step Seven: a Lifetime Supply

Coming into AA and finding the acceptance and love I'd sought in a bottle was a relief beyond description, but reading the Steps was a shock. Fortunately for me, my home group did not hammer the Steps into newcomers. Rather, they talked a lot about the Slogans and the need to not drink a day at a time. I needed that.

During a discussion of Step Seven, I made the statement, "If my shortcomings and character defects are removed, there will be nothing left!" I need not have feared. What I've learned since then is that I have more than a lifetime's supply of character defects. My Higher Power and I can't get rid of them all in my allotted time on this earth.

More importantly, I've learned that if I simply let go of a character defect--release it--my Higher Power will replace it with a character asset. As I release anger, I find that I am friendlier. As I release hate, I become more loving. As I release fear, I become more secure. I don't have to go out looking for friendliness, love, security, or any other trait that I desire. I just have to give up the feelings that are manifestations of my character defects and the good automatically flows into my life.... And I used to think that I would become hollow without my character defects!

So, how does it work? Daily. On a daily basis I choose not to drink--or to fear, hate, be angry, or indulge in any other defect that's raising its ugly head. They're all there waiting, and when given a chance they charge into the center of my life and try to take over. But when I work Step Seven, I find that my life is filled with good, and people actually like to be around me--something they never did in my drinking days.

C.

Kathmandu,

Concept 7

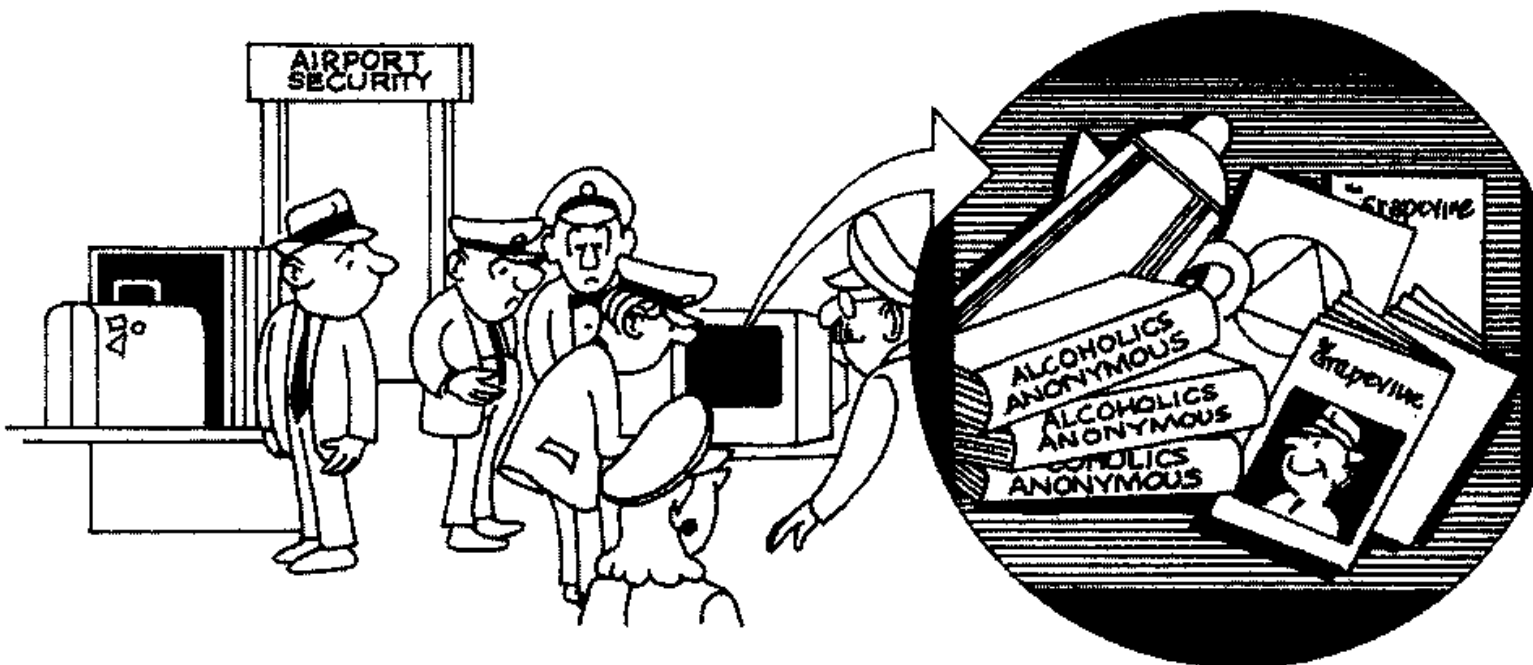

The Conference recognizes that the Charter and the Bylaws of the General Service Board are legal instruments: that the Trustees fully empowered to manage and conduct all of the world service affairs of Alcoholics Anonymous. It is further understood that the Conference Charter itself is not a legal document: that it relies instead upon the force of tradition and the power of the A.A. purse for its final effectiveness.

Tradition 7

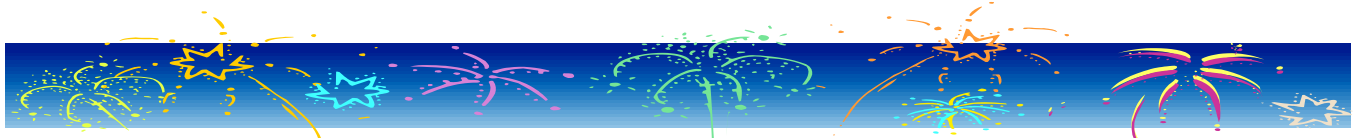

Every A.A. group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.

1. Honestly now, do I do all I can to help AA (my group, my central office, my GSO) remain self-supporting? Could I put a little more into the basket on behalf of the new guy who can't afford it yet? How generous was I when tanked in a barroom?
2. Should the Grapevine sell advertising space to book publishers and drug companies, so it could make a big profit and become a bigger magazine, in full color, at a cheaper price per copy?
3. If GSO runs short of funds some year, wouldn't it be okay to let the government subsidize AA groups in hospitals and prisons?
4. Is it more important to get a big AA collection from a few people, or a smaller collection in which more members participate?
5. Is a group treasurer's report unimportant AA business? How does the treasurer feel about it?
6. How important in my recovery is the feeling of self-respect,

AA Thought for the Day

Never-ending Growth

The dangers of overdoing it

Recently I celebrated ten years of sobriety. I am one of those people who always wants to know how much time someone has in AA. In some ways, I have gauged my program by the programs of others. I've noticed that people who have what I want seem to do a lot of Twelfth Step work, so over the years I've taken on a lot of service positions ranging from making coffee to sponsorship. These service positions have increased as my years of recovery have increased. I never wanted to say no to an AA request because I was afraid that I would be sucked back into the black hole of alcoholism if I wasn't willing to go to any lengths. Over the last year, my home and cell phone were ringing up to ten or more times a day from AA members. Often I would turn my cell off at night and by the next morning there would be five or more voice mails waiting for me. Somewhere in there I was trying to be a wife, daughter, and friend, as well as taking care of my home and two dogs.

I started to become overwhelmed and resentful at the constant needs of AA members interrupting my life, mixed with shame that I could be resentful at the very thing that was such a huge part of my recovery. In the last twelve months, I started to experience a lot of illnesses along with fatigue and depression. I also started screening my phone calls and not answering the phone. I couldn't figure out why I was feeling so horrible when I was doing everything that had been asked of me.

Thankfully, I have a connection with God and work with a sponsor. I had to pray, write, talk, and cry my way through the process of uncovering and discovering what was happening to me. It turns out that my sobriety is not contingent on quantity as much as quality. I don't have to be all things to all people. I now pause when asked to sponsor a woman or take on a service position. I check my motives and pray about what God's will is for me. I understand that if I don't take on every request asked of me I'm not going to get drunk and that others will have the opportunity to be of service. I realize that God is huge and he seems to be taking care of AA just fine and that my part is to not drink, connect with God, go to meetings, and pause when agitated or doubtful. I've been given the gift of becoming right-sized in my world. This thing really works if I just get out of the way and let God be in charge. Imagine that.

The Last Word

Hand in Hand

I can't even guess how far one hand can reach. Across three centuries? Around the globe? Inside a broken heart? Yes, yes, and yes! And then where?

The tiny hand of the newborn that wrapped itself around his mother's finger in 1895 belonged to the infant Bill W., one more cryin' little child in Vermont? But who knew where and how that same hand would reach out to change the lives of millions?

When my own hand reached for the door of the AA room in Ohio in 1970, I had no idea that the door had been unlocked by Bill. All those noisy people sitting under a cloud of smoke were more frightening than a lonely bar at midnight. But the hand of AA was there to welcome me.

Five years later, still sober, I stood on a street corner in Arizona feeling alone and hopeless one more time. By then I had a notion whose hand had written ". . .the alcoholic is an extreme example of self-will run riot. . .we must be rid of this selfishness. . .we must or it kills us." The energy of that hand walked me through my first experience with total surrender.

At twenty-five years sober I received a letter from an ex-railroader in Australia I had met through a meeting-by-mail. My heart was aching over my alcoholic son and he wrote the perfect words to bring life back into focus. I was lifted up by a man down under. What a program!

Last year I spoke at a meeting in Florida that I learned about from a recovering woman in New York City, via the internet. It just gets better! When anyone, anywhere reaches out, the hand of AA is always there. I have received many gifts from hands and hearts guided by the words penned by Bill W.

Whaddyathink? Fast forward--2022. On TV sets around the world we watch as they deliver the first settlers to an interstellar community on another planet. As the spaceship sets down and the settlers cautiously step into the unknown we notice a sticker beside the steps that reads, "Bleep if you know Bill W."
