A Love Letter to My Friend

How do I love thee...

Sometimes I find myself wondering how our relationship went so terribly wrong. Was there some way I could have prolonged our affair? I tried my hardest to keep it going but you just kept on taking and taking. Is this what best friends do?

When I met you, it was instant attraction. You were cool to be around. You made me feel that I was cool also! It didn't matter that I felt insecure, overweight, depressed and broken. With you by my side all of that disappeared. Everything I had to deal with for the next 36 years was softened by your care of me. Whenever I felt alone or afraid you were there to put me at ease. I could just relax and get through it. I fell in love with you.

And I loved you like no other. I was there for you...always!! I put you before my family, my friends, my career, my future and my life. You were always my number one. And I never wavered from my love and commitment to you. I protected you until I couldn't anymore.

When you were gone from my life, it started to become quite clear what kind of friend you had really been...

See Love Letter, page 3

...let me count the ways.

You were a thief! You stole 36 years of my life which I can never replace. You stole my chance at being a great mom. You stole my ability to be there for all those I loved. You also took away my integrity, dignity, and compassion for others. And then you were almost able to take away my life.

Also, you were a liar. You friends gone as well, had me convinced my small gray world was just fine. Only you and I were truly welcome there. You made me believe our relationship was quite glamorous. A few drinks by the pool, a bottle of wine in a nice restaurant, vacations filled with just you and I. You said that you would be there for me always. Now I can see how truly alone I was.

Then there's the stark fact that you are a murderer. You took my Dad's life very slowly. I watched it and vowed you would never do that to me. There were other family members too numerous to name. Now there are thanks to you. This year was especially eye-opening; watching a meeting-maker friend slip away. Somehow you convinced him that he could not live without you.

But I still miss you once in a while. My brain tells me maybe it wasn't so bad, maybe you could wrap your arms around me and be there again.

But then, by the grace of God, my heart awakens me. My heart is now filled with love, with life, and with God. It tells me. "Hev! That was not real. That was just one big lie."

My disease will make me forget all the devastation that it brought unless I have a daily reminder. So, I start my day with others just like me. We tell how our affair with alcohol ended badly. We remind each other of how lucky we are to finally be seeing the truth and having a choice of saying goodbye.

-Karen O.

STEP 5:

Admitted to God, ourselves, and to another human being, the exact nature of our wrongs.

TRADITION 5:

Each group has but one primary purpose – to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

CONCEPT 5:

Throughout our structure, a traditional "Right of Appeal" ought to prevail, so that minority opinion will be heard and personal grievances receive careful consideration.

- Do we encourage the minority opinion, the "Right of Appeal", to be heard at our home group, district committee meetings, area assemblies and the Conference?
- What does our group accept as "substantial unanimity"?
- Has our group experienced the "tyranny of the majority" or the "tyranny of the minority"?
- Does our group understand the importance of all points of view being heard before a vote is taken?

TRADITION 5 CHECKLIST:

- Do I ever cop out by saying, "I'm not a group, so this or that Tradition doesn't apply to me"?
- Am I willing to explain firmly to a newcomer the limitations of AA help, even if he gets mad at me for not giving him a loan?
- Have I today imposed on any AA member for a special favor or consideration simply because I am a fellow alcoholic?
- Am I willing to twelfth-step the next newcomer without regard to who or what is in it for me?
- Do I help my group in every way I can to fulfill our primary purpose?
- Do I remember that AA old-timers, too, can be alcoholics who still suffer? Do I try both to help them and to learn from them?

Meeting changes

Meeting guide goes with you

The app that helps people attempting to get and stay sober is available free to anyone. Just go to the app store and search for "meeting guide," and click to download it. It is free and awesome. When the app is opened, it defaults to the nearest next AA meeting to wherever the phone is anywhere in the world. Tap on the name of the meeting and it will say what type of meeting it is, along with the directions of how to get there and more.

Saturday AA Speakers-May

Speakers for the 7 p.m. Saturday Night Live meeting at Walk the Talk will be: May 4, Stephen; May 11, Linda Marie; May 18 Anniki; and May 25, Ann S.

We're in Falcon too!

A new, open meeting called We Are Here is now meeting at the High Prairie Library Wednesdays at 9:30 a.m. The library is at 7035 Old Meridian Rd., across from the fire department.

Another new meeting in Falcon is located at: 6475 E. Blanez (Cornerstone Community Church) on Mondays at 9:30 am

... and other stuff

Silver Linings is a new meeting located at 2365 Patriot Heights (Brookdale at Skyline) on Saturdays at 4:30 pm.

TAKE NOTE! There is NO LONGER an open women's meeting at Comcor on Tuesdays at 7:30.

Inclement Weather

Is that a tsunami on the horizon? Perhaps you feel the start of an earthquake. After last month's "bomb cyclone", we just never know what the weather will be doing around here.

For all future weather events, know that your Service Office follows the District 11 schedule for delays and closures.

PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE

If you have a meeting change, even if it is one single, solitary, lonesome word, (like from discussion to study) please include all the other particulars; especially name and time of the meeting and location.

Perhaps someone's reading this and they think, "Hm, I'd love to go to that meeting, but where do they meet and what time?" But, because that information isn't part of the announcement, they may decide to not attend.
